

6516205469.txt

Leave satellite radio alone. worry about real issues, like the garbage that is seen ever night on public tv. I have to constantly turn channels to avoid my 4 year old from seeing what I feel should be showed alot later in the evening. I pay for XM service and I should not have to worry about The FCC taking services provided away from me, Thanks for listening.